

More Information

About the South Metropolitan Higher Education Consortium

The South Metropolitan Higher Education Consortium is a partnership of sixteen colleges and universities in the south and southwest suburbs of the metropolitan Chicago region. The mission of the Consortium is for its members to collaborate to enhance educational services and programs in the region.

The goals of the Consortium include:

- Enhance and promote our educational resources in the region.
- Develop partnerships with employers.
- Collaborate to promote student success.
- Provide professional development services.

The Consortium supports the region by serving as a resource for regional organizations and by increasing the awareness of opportunities, degrees, certificates, and programs available to residents at its member campuses.

For more information on the Consortium, or for additional copies of this guide, e-mail the SMHEC office at info@SouthMetroEd.org, call us at 708-534-4495, or log onto our web site at www.SouthMetroEd.org.
