

Saint Xavier University

Founded in 1846 by the Sisters of Mercy, Saint Xavier University is a Catholic, coeducational, comprehensive university grounded in the tradition of the liberal arts and offering undergraduate and graduate degree programs to 5,709 students from across the country. With two campuses in Chicago and Orland Park, Saint Xavier's 35 undergraduate majors and 40 graduate options are offered in five schools: the School of Arts and Sciences, the School of Education, the Graham School of Management, the School of Nursing and the School of Continuing and Professional Studies. As one of 19 colleges and universities sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy, Saint Xavier University assists students in their search for truth and meaning by providing a scholarly, supportive community that promotes excellence in teaching; learning for life as well as for livelihood; and the cultivation of ethical and moral sensibilities to promote the common good. Catholic and Mercy, Saint Xavier University welcomes students of all religious and faith traditions.
