

South Metropolitan Higher Education Consortium Regionally Organizing for Sustainability

“Sustainability efforts...we will be able to do more collectively than as an individual institution.”

President Michael Vinciguerra, University of St. Francis

Collecting Baseline Data

HOW NOW (what is your institution doing now?)	HOW OTHERS (Examples of what others are doing)	HOW NEXT (Next Steps)
STUDENT ENGAGEMENT GRID Institution includes sustainability prominently in its new student orientation activities and programming See Appendix for program, describe your # students reached implementation date
Student Sustainability Outreach Campaign(s) Institution holds at least one sustainability-related outreach campaign directed at students. The campaign yields measurable, positive results in advancing sustainability.

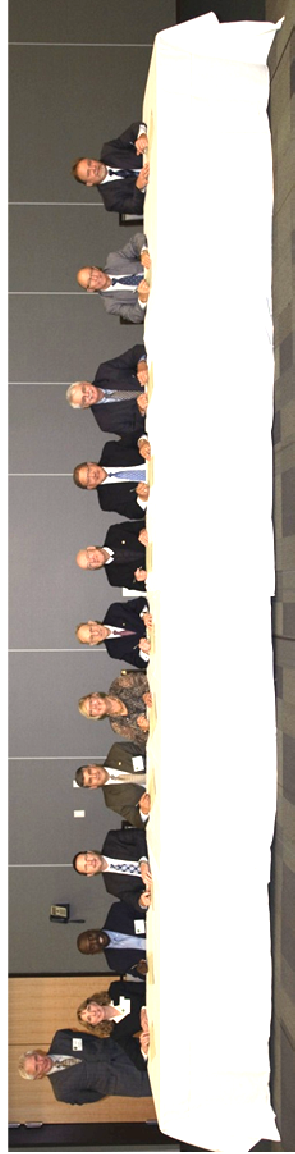

How Now?
By the end of the workshop each institution developed its own plan for participating in the Illinois Campus Sustainability Compact

How Others?
Building a Community of Peers

Academics	Facilities	Student Engagement
Sustainability Course Identification	Reducing Energy Consumption	Sustainability in Orientation
Sustainability Learning Outcomes	Increasing Use of Clean Energy	Sustainability Publications
Sustainability Literacy Assessment	Reducing Waste and Diversion to Landfill	Sustainability Outreach Campaigns
Sustainability Incentives	Reducing Water Consumption	Other Opportunities
	Sustainable Grounds	Investments

Joint Presidential Signing of the Illinois Campus Sustainability Compact

LEWIS UNIVERSITY
Illinois Campus Sustainability Compact
 A commitment to the Illinois Campus Sustainability Compact is a commitment to the future of our planet and the well-being of our students.

Program Overview
 The Illinois Campus Sustainability Compact is a commitment to the future of our planet and the well-being of our students. It is a commitment to the future of our planet and the well-being of our students. It is a commitment to the future of our planet and the well-being of our students.

How to Participate
 1. Complete the online survey by the deadline.
 2. Submit a letter of support to your campus sustainability officer.
 3. Participate in the online discussion forum.

Signatures
 President: Michael Vinciguerra
 Vice President: [Signature]

Sustainability
 Strategic Plan
 Master Plan
 Sustainability Plan
 Climate Action Plan
 Coordination